

Acacia cognata 'Curtain Call'

This is an elegant tall screening shrub with attractive narrow willow-like pendulous foliage. The leaves are long, thin, pale green and are soft to the touch. Pale yellow flowers open in spring and are typical ball shaped wattle flowers.

Use this tree as an informat screen as it offers good coverage for its is light, wispy foliage. Makes a great feature tree in its own right due to colour and texture.

Prefers moist situations and can grow very well in semi-shaded positions. Can tolerate most soils and ph levels.
