

Calodendrum capense 'Chandlers Silver'

CAPE CHESTNUT

A small to medium evergreen tree with beautiful flowers borne from November - December. The smooth grey bark can also be a feature.

Calodendron is an attractive tree for parks, avenues and large gardens.

Prefers a sunny, open position in rich, moist, well-drained soil. Tolerates frost and some coastal exposure when established. Protect from frost when young. Apply mulch in spring to keep roots cool and moist. Keep moist in dry weather, but drier at other times. Tolerates pruning if necessary.
