

Tree	 Acacia implexa LIGHTWOOD, HICKORY WATTLE
Description	An upright small to medium tree that is native to Australia. It has similar wood to Acacia melanoxylon when young but A. implexa flowers in summer. A drought tolerant upright small tree with an open crown, long slender green leaves and pale yellow flowers in Summertime.
Foliage	 Evergreen
Form	 Oval
Mature Size	8 x 7m
Uses	This is a great tree for coastal plantings and gardens in full sun. Can tolerate road pollution so it suits roadways and car parks where this can be an issue.
Position & Soil	Likes a well-drained soil in a sunny position. Can tolerate a range of conditions which makes it a good street tree. Can handle dry and wet soils.
Features	 Medium  Evergreen  Oval  Bird Attracting  Coastal  Group Planting  Native
Pot sizes in production	• 40cm/27L (1.6-2.0m)
Substitutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acacia melanoxylon • Acer capillipes • Acer palmatum strongly recommended that users enquire about product availability independently of this source.