

Picea glauca

WHITE SPRUCE

This is a conifer in the Spruce family with a conical shape similar to that of a Christmas tree. Slender stiff prickly needles and attractive pendulous cones are typical of this type of tree. It is slow growing.

Makes an attractive specimen tree or with similar plants in a conifer garden.

Prefers a full sun position in a humus rich soil.

Foliage Evergreen

Form Conical

Mature Size 15 x 5m

Family Pinaceae

Large

Evergreen

Conical

Avenue

Feature Foliage

Formal Screening

Specimen

Disclaimer: The material contained on the Speciality Trees website is for general information only. Although much care has been taken to provide the information on its website, Speciality Trees does not warrant the accuracy, completeness or currency of this information and its suitability to your needs. All material listed on the Speciality Trees website, its associated links and product sheets are varieties either ready for sale or in production. This is an information source and not confirmation of availability. It is strongly recommended that users enquire about product availability independently of this source.